

MICHAEL BYUN, M.D., CHICAGO COSMETIC SURGERY

“It’s not all about vanity. Cosmetic surgery is an art form, and your outcome is only as good as your surgeon’s skill. Not all surgeons are created equal. Dr. Byun is renowned for his mid-face lift. He is an artist, and I can attest to his talent first-hand.” - Cindy Weber

“I suffered a brutal attack in February 2004. Near death, my limbs and toes were severely frostbitten and I lost a portion of the back of my scalp. Dr. Byun saved my feet and face. Today, I am an active mother chasing after my young children.” - Terri Jendusa-Nicolai, featured on 20/20, NBC News, ABC, and WGN-TV Chicago

Dr. Michael Byun believes that cosmetic surgery is a holistic endeavor. Not simply a means of changing your appearance, it is a medical treatment to combat the aging process. He is an architect of beauty. Dr. Byun received doctor of medicine from Northwestern Medical School and he is board-certified with the American Board of Plastic Surgery.
